NASBITECGBP[®]
Certified Global Business Professional

*As with many professional certifications and licensures, continuing education is a key component to keeping abreast of current trends, best practices and updates in your field. The inclusion of a recertification requirement serves to elevate and protect the value of your credential by demonstrating a high level of expertise and current knowledge.

*CGBPs are required to pay an annual maintenance fee of $50 and to provide evidence of continuing education each year in order to remain in good standing.

How Are Candidates Preparing?

- *Best preparation is through colleges, universities, trade centers, and training organizations
- *The NASBITE CGBP enhances existing training programs
- *The key is understanding the depth of knowledge versus the breadth

What is Happening at Colleges and Universities?

- *Many are aligning their degree programs with the CGBP not for 'training to the test' for 'training to the skills standard'
- *Higher Ed sees the CGBP as an enhancing current curricula and offering differentiation among peer schools
- *Program income is being generated through non-credit training programs

Why Become a Certified Trainer?

- * The NASBITE CGBP Certified Trainer designation is an endorsement that proves competency in all four domains of knowledge required by the Certified Global Business Professional credential. Certified trainers are those professionals who have proven their competency to effectively train candidates to sit for the CGBP exam.

Certified Trainer Designation Requirements:

- * Personally earned CGBP certification
- * Three years work experience with trade and/or trade education
- * A bachelor degree or 10 years of experience in appropriate field

Certified Trainer Designation Validity Period

- * Certified Trainer Designation will be valid for a period of three years.

Certified Trainer Three Year Fee

- * Trainer Accreditation fee is $300. Approved trainers will have initial $150 application fee credited to the first three year payment.

Accreditation Requirements

- * Program curriculum and learning objectives align with the four domains of the CGBP rubric.
- * The program accreditation evaluation will consider the prerequisites organizations or universities require for accepting students in the process. These requirements may be based on specific courses taken previously, education levels, and/or life experience.
- * University/college courses should meet or exceed the minimum requirements of the accredited offering institution.
- * Prior to accreditation application, the program must have been provided to a group of participants at least two times.
