Overview

Global Business Management

Develop and/or assist with the strategic and operational planning, development, implementation, and assessment of the international aspects of the business

Teaching Strategies

– teach business plan framework, along with key concepts such as vision, mission, strategy, tactics, goals and objectives etc

- have students develop business plans, depth can vary based on circumstances and breadth of the curriculum
Develop and/or assist in the creation of a global mission statement for the firm

- Basic components of a mission statement
- Purpose and aim(s) of the organization
- The organization's primary stakeholders: clients/customers, shareholders, etc
- Nature and uniqueness of the company’s value proposition
Participate in the global business planning and long-term strategic planning processes

- Elements of a global business plan
- Environmental factors affecting international strategies
  - political, legal/regulatory
  - socio-cultural, cost and competitive factors,
  - appropriate levels of technology
- Local, state, federal and global support initiatives that are designed to enable global business ventures and expansion
Establish and maintain relationships with appropriate external organizations to support global activities

- industry, trade, and investment associations

- Government support agencies
  - U.S. government agencies,
  - IMF, World Bank
Where to begin?
Contribute to the ongoing internal and external research efforts to determine viability of global ventures

- Basic research concepts and techniques
  - primary vs. secondary data,
  - basic research methodologies / processes, surveys
  - data analysis (statistical, quantitative vs qualitative)

- Data sources for international market data
  - U.S. Dept. of Commerce, Country Desks
  - IMF, World Bank, UN agencies,
  - Private firm data
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Participate in the effective use of technology to support global performance</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>• Commonly used business and communication technologies, advantages of the internet</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Software tools to support global activities</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Develop and/or assist in the development, implementation, and evaluation of the global budget

- General budgeting concepts
  - basic elements of financial statements,
  - sales forecasts,
  - expense forecasts

- Revenues and expense uncertainties

- Transfer pricing
Develop and/or assist in risk assessment and the development of risk management policies to support proposed global business activities

- Country risk
  - political risk, economic risk, expropriation

- Commercial risk
  - credit assessment and mitigating techniques

- Travel and expatriate risks
  - Role of Department of State
  - Family member’s adaptation, reverse culture shock
  - Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
Recognize ethical and cultural issues that are inherent in global activities and contribute to an ethical and cross-culturally sensitive business environment

- Business ethics as perceived and practiced in the U.S. and in other countries
  - cultural relativism, labor laws

- Culturally appropriate techniques for international business settings
  - adaptive behavior, response,
  - verbal/written language to correspond with local business culture
  - group vs. individual, ethnocentric vs. monocentric, high context vs. low context
Develop and/or assist in internal and external legal and regulatory compliance efforts to support global activities

- General legal liability issues
  - product liability
  - international contractual disputes
  - governance issues,
- Export license compliance
- Intellectual property rights
  - patent, trademark, copyright
  - international agreements (e.g., Paris Convention, Madrid System) and practical enforcement levels
Develop and/or assist in internal and external legal and regulatory compliance efforts to support global activities (continued)

- Issues related to and sources of information for offshore regulatory/legal concerns
  - Bureau of Industry and Security, United Nations
  - bribery/corruption, antitrust, customs

- Import/export permits, licenses, labor law, currency regulations

Friday, April 20, 2012
The Nines Hotel
Portland, Oregon