TECHEX LIVE CASE STUDY Submittable

Join us for a live case study featuring Missoula-based SaaS firm, Submittable. With EU laws on general data protection coming into effect on May 25th, many Montana based firms are in a last minute push to comply with GDPR. Hear from Submittable founder, Michael Fitzgerald, about his firm's experience selling internationally and their plan for GDPR as well as targeted feedback from featured TechEx team member, Joel Henry, who will weigh in on best practices relating to GDPR.

A Bit More About General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

Who Does it affect?

All companies:

- processing the personal data of data subjects residing in the Union, regardless of the company's location.
- processing of personal data by controllers and processors in the EU, regardless of whether the processing takes place in the EU or not.
- processing of personal data of data subjects in the EU by a controller or processor not established in the EU, where the activities relate to : offering goods or services to EU citizens (irrespective of whether payment is required) and the monitoring of behavior that takes place within the EU.
- Non-EU businesses processing the data of EU citizens.

Penalties for non-compliance:

- Up to 4% of annual global turnover or €20 Million (whichever is greater)

Tiered approach to fines e.g. a company can be fined 2% for not having their records in order, not notifying the supervising authority and data subject about a breach or not conducting impact assessment.
