There are several areas of involvement for an individual to choose from to fulfill his or her responsibilities as a BOG Member. Some of these are marketing and public relations, finance, outreach/partnership, board development, the CGBP, conference planning, sponsorship and others. As task forces or working groups each of these areas significantly contribute to the operations of the organization and to achieving our overall mission and goals. If elected to the BOG, you will become familiar with NASBITE's work, you will be able to indicate where you believe you may make contributions, or you may be asked to join by a team leader for a specific need.
